The area also boasts a fantastic selection of prestigious Blue Flag beaches. Be sure to include a few of these in your itinerary:

- Poppit Sands
- Saundersfoot
- Tenby North
- Tenby Castle
- Tenby South

Discover the Coastal Way

Road trips don’t come much better than this: meandering the length of Cardigan Bay for 180 miles from St Davids all the way to Aberdaron in the north is the magnificent Coastal Way. Launched in 2018, the route is a fantastic way to explore the unique scenery and picturesque towns of coastal Pembrokeshire and beyond.

Break up the journey by visiting some of these spectacular sights along the way:

- Abereiddi and The Blue Lagoon
  - Porthgain Harbour
  - Melin Tregwynt
- Garn Fawr and Strumble Head
- Pwlgwaelod and Cwm yr Eglwys
  - Newport Parrog
- St Dogmaels and Poppit Sands
On your Bike

Hop on a bike and navigate miles of unspoilt countryside on two wheels. With the Pembrokeshire Trail, the southern section of the Lôn Teifi Trail and the Pembrokeshire stretch of the Celtic Cycle Trail all on offer, as well as many new routes that follow little used back roads, there’s never been a better time.

The Wizo Trail, named after a Flemish chieftain, explores the central area of Pembrokeshire once controlled by this fierce warrior, taking you past castles and other buildings of historical significance. The circular Medieval Mystery Trail winds through countryside and coastal sections and includes historical sites such as Lamphey Palace and Manorbier Castle. For outstanding views trace the southern foothills of the Preseli Mountains on the Preseli Stones Trail.
One of the best ways to immerse yourself in Pembrokeshire’s stunning landscape is with a walk along its celebrated coastal path. Running from St Dogmaels in the north to the southern point of Amroth, this 186-mile path is a world-class long distance walking trail. Take in cliff top views, pretty villages, secret coves and broad beaches through a wide variety of walks, many of which can be reached by a coastal bus service.
Head inland and there are countless trails to choose from to explore the remarkable countryside. Make a new discovery every day with our top coast and countryside walks:

- Walk around Bosherston’s beautiful lily ponds and explore the dunes and pools of the Mere Pool Valley behind Broad Haven beach. 1 mile.
- Journey from Porthgain to Abereiddi along the coastal path to see the Blue Lagoon. 2 miles.
- The Dinas Island circular walk offers stunning scenery. 3 miles.
- Walk from Saundersfoot to Tenby with plenty of twists and turns! 4.5 miles.
- Reach St Ann’s Head from Dale village to see where Henry VII landed. 7 miles.
- The circular walk from Gellifawr to the summit of Mynydd Carningli includes an Iron Age hillfort. 8.5 miles.
- Enjoy the remote beauty on a walk from Fishguard to Pwll Deri via Strumble lighthouse. 9 miles.
Pembrokeshire’s pristine coast and countryside attracts a rich variety of wildlife. A boat trip along the coast or out to the islands of Skomer and Skokholm is a great way to spot puffins, Manx shearwaters, razorbills, gannets and guillemots, as well as grey seals, dolphins and basking sharks to name just a few.

For a chance encounter with wild otters, head to Bosherston Lakes where you will also find bats, butterflies and all sorts of birds from kingfisher to sparrowhawk. To the north, the ancient woodland of Ty Canol is an area of immense scientific interest thanks to its abundant collection of lichens.

DISCOVER PEMBROKESHIRE’S SPECIAL PLACES

Get set for an epic adventure with the National Trust in Pembrokeshire. We care for miles (and miles!) of the county’s coast and countryside, along with historic houses, colourful gardens and an array of accommodation. Whether you’re all about walking, wildlife watching, history and mystery or making a splash, we’ve got you covered. So what are you waiting for?

1. COASTAL CHARM

Visit Broad Haven South for classic coastal charm, go rockpooling at Marloes Sands and uncover adventure at Abereiddi and its Blue Lagoon. For watersports, you can make a splash with guided sessions from Stackpole Quay and Freshwater West.

2. A GARDEN FOR ALL SEASONS

Colby Woodland Garden is a riot of colour and a must-visit throughout the year. Follow winding woodland trails, admire seasonal blooms in the walled garden and let little ones enjoy natural play with pond dipping, tree climbing and den building.

3. WILDLIFE WOWS

Come and meet our resident wildlife; autumn is the real wow as we welcome in seal pup season! Head to the Marloes Peninsula on a guided ranger walk to see the Atlantic grey seals and their pups. Have those binoculars ready…

4. HANDS-ON HISTORY

If you’re all about history and mystery, step back in time at the Tudor Merchant’s House in Tenby and see what life was like in the 1500s. Uncover the superstitions and secrets of Tudor sleep as we launch our Don’t Let the Bed Bugs Bite programme of activities.

5. FARM LIFE

For a glimpse into rural life, head to the Southwood Estate, our home farm for North Pembrokeshire. Follow the walking trails around the estate, visit the shearing shed for information, come along to one of our flagship events and maybe even spot our herd of Welsh Black Cattle.

6. PLACES TO STAY

When you’re done exploring for the day, take your pick from cosy cottages to eco-friendly camping to big group houses. For an escape in the great outdoors, sleep easy under the stars at Gupton Farm, our coastal campsite and farmhouse accommodation nestled behind Freshwater West.

A Guide to Quality Assurance

All of the properties featured in this publication have been independently assessed so you can make your choice in confidence, knowing that every accommodation has been given a rating according to the quality and facilities on offer. These ratings mean that you can be sure of standards to choose the one that’s right for you.

Visit Wales/AA are the only grading agents in Wales, checking out over 5,000 properties.

What do our star ratings mean?

Visit Wales STARS are evidence of quality. They range from one to five stars and are a reliable indication of what you can expect in these properties which include hotels, guest houses, bed & breakfast, farm accommodation, hostel/hostel type accommodation, self-catering cottages, apartments, caravan holiday homes and touring/camping parks.

Glamping Sites and alternatives such as yurts, tipis and tree houses are also checked to ensure that they meet minimum standards.

Cleanliness is the most crucial element of any assessment we carry out, particularly at the higher star ratings which reflect consumer expectations.

All accommodation grades are based on a set of common quality standards agreed by Visit Wales, Visit England, Visit Scotland, Tourism Northern Ireland and the AA.

Does a lower star rating equal less quality?

Many lower star rated accommodations may still offer high quality but do not meet all of the facility and service expectations for the higher star ratings. It is particularly important not to compare Guest Accommodation ratings against Hotel ratings as different criteria are used when assessing. The advice is to always check with an establishment before booking to ensure that the accommodation offers the services and facilities that meet your needs - they will only be too pleased to help.

Making the Grade

For further information on gradings and awards please contact Visit Wales, Welsh Government, Rhodfa Padarn, Llanbadarn Fawr, Aberystwyth, Ceredigion SY23 3UR
Tel: 0845 010 8020
email: quality.tourism@gov.wales

In the unfortunate event that you do encounter problems with your chosen accommodation, please refer to www.visitwales.com/grading/complaints for further guidance.
Rates
All rates listed show a 'from' and 'to' rate, illustrating the minimum and maximum amounts that can be charged. These will be date dependent and differ for each accommodation.

Hotels, guesthouses & B&B’s
Serviced accommodation is charged on a PRPN (Per Room Per Night) or PPPN (Per Person Per Night) basis. Be sure to double check which rate the accommodation shows before booking.

If an accommodation is charged at PPPN, this is usually based on 2 people sharing a double or twin room. A single occupancy supplement may occur for single guests.

Self Catering
